NON-COMPLIANCE SUMMARY

As noted above, the conditions of Wise's term of supervised release were amended by the Court on February 8, 2006, to include the addition of a special condition directing her to serve a four month term of electronically monitored home confinement.

The undersigned probation officer is writing to advise the Court that Wise commenced this four month term of electronic monitoring without incident on April 18, 2006. The offender was compliant with the terms of her electronic monitoring sentence.

However, on May 31, 2006, her telephone service was cut off by Cincinnati Bell, due to her nonpayment of this bill. The offender tried unsuccessfully during the next two and a half weeks to have this phone service restored, but was unable to raise the funds necessary to restore the service. Thus, this officer told Wise on June 19, 2006, that she would be removed from the electronic monitoring program due to her inability to have her telephone service restored. She would be credited for her time on electronic monitoring from her commencement in the program on April 18, 2006 through June 19, 2006.

As of this date, telephone service has not yet been restored to the Wise residence.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

As the offender does not have the financial resources to remain on electronic monitoring, and non-electronic monitoring is not an option without a working telephone, the undersigned probation officer is respectfully recommending that the Court take no action to allow the offender additional time to obtain financial resources sufficient enough to restore her phone service. The offender will be reinstalled on electronic monitoring as soon as possible after the restoration of her telephone service.

Respectfully submitted,

Approved,
